
P: Breath of God, Breath of Life, Breath of Deepest Yearning,
C: Come, Holy Spirit.

P: Comforter, Disturber, Interpreter, Enthuser,
C: Come, Holy Spirit.

P: Heavenly Friend, Lamplighter, Revealer of Truth, Midwife of Change,
C: Come, Holy Spirit.

P: The Spirit is here.
C: The Holy One is with us.

P: We pray to you, O God of Life.
C: You pour out your Spirit upon all the world.

P: At the end of each response, we will take a moment to blow some bubbles. Let the bubbles help us visualize the Spirit's movement, imagine the places where those small, captured breaths will go, and see the beauty of our prayers as we ask God's blessing.

P: A blessing on this place and all who worship here.
C: Though we cannot see it, the Spirit moves in this place and in each other.

P: A blessing on all faithful people,
C: and on all who seek to live in faith, to the ends of the earth.

P: A blessing on this town,
C: and all who live in it.

P: A blessing on every race and nation,
C: all people, young and old.

P: A blessing on those who laugh, those who weep, those at peace, and those at war,
C: in every emotion, moment, and circumstance of life.

P: A blessing on those who have died, and those who will live to see tomorrow;
C: all who are entering eternal rest and those restlessly waiting.

P: A blessing on every creature, great and small,
C: all microbes and blue whales.

P: A blessing on every mountain and river,
C: all rocks and waterways.

P: A blessing on the whole wide world.
C: All who are held and created through God's breath of love.

P: Breath of God, Breath of Life, Breath of Deepest Yearning,
C: You pour out your Spirit upon all the world.

P: All God's people said:
C: Amen.
